

Fair Registration Practices Report

Occupational Therapists (2014)

The answers that you submitted to OFC can be seen below.

This Fair Registration Practices Report was produced as required by:

- the Fair Access to Regulated Professions and Compulsory Trades Act (FARPACTA) s. 20 and 23 (1), for regulated professions named in Schedule 1 of FARPACTA
- the Health Professions Procedural Code set out in Schedule 2 of the Regulated Health Professions Act (RHPA) s. 22.7 (1) and 22.9(1), for health colleges.

Provision of Information About Registration Practices (1 / 13)

Describe how you make information about registration practices available to individuals applying or intending to apply for registration. Specify the tools used to provide information, and the manner in which you make that information available, current, accurate and user friendly in each of these subcategories:

a) steps to initiate the registration process

 SAME AS LAST YEAR ***

Information regarding how to apply, as well as the registration process and requirements are available on the COTO website and in paper form (if requested). This includes a Fact Sheet specifically for internationally educated applicants and individual web pages for each applicant type. This information is kept current and would be updated if the steps to initiate the registration process changed. COTO applicants may also speak or e-mail directly to COTO Registration staff regarding any of the registration requirements.

Other organizations that want to provide information regarding COTO's registration process are encouraged to provide a link to the COTO site rather than trying to reproduce the information on their site, as this way the information linked to will always be consistent and accurate.

The information is user-friendly and is available both on-line and in paper format (if requested). On the COTO website there is also the option to increase the font size of text to make it easier for visually-impaired users to read.

The same information as on the Fact Sheet is contained in a Career Map for the Occupational Therapy profession which was jointly developed with the Ministry of Citizenship and Immigration's Labour Market Integration Unit. This Career Map is available on the government of Ontario's website. When there are changes to COTO registration practices, COTO informs MCI so that changes can be made to this Career Map. It is also updated upon request by the Ontario government.

b) requirements for registration

 SAME AS LAST YEAR ***

Information regarding the registration process and requirements are available on the COTO website and is sent to applicants in the format of their choice (hard copy or electronic). This includes the Fact Sheet specifically for internationally educated applicants. COTO applicants may also speak or e-mail directly to COTO Registration staff regarding any of the registration requirements.

This information is kept current by updating it whenever registration requirements change due to changes in the registration regulation or policy. As indicated above, other organizations that want to provide information regarding COTO's registration practices are encouraged to provide a link to the COTO site rather than trying to reproduce the information on their site, as this way the information linked to will always be consistent and accurate.

The information is user-friendly and is available both on-line and in paper format (if requested). On the COTO website there is also the option to increase the font size of text to make it easier for visually-impaired users to read.

In addition, when applicants initiate the registration process, they are given access to an online personalized applicant checklist, which list all outstanding documentation required for submission.

The Career Map for the Occupational Therapy profession is also available on the government of Ontario's website. When there are changes to COTO registration practices, COTO informs MCI so that changes can be made to this Career Map. There are links to the COTO Fact Sheet and MCI Career Map from a number of Ontario government web pages.

A listing of the entry to practice requirements for registration as an occupational therapist in Ontario is also listed on the HealthForceOntario web site, along with a link to the COTO web site.

c) explanation of how the requirements for registration are to be met, such as the number of years of schooling required for a degree to be deemed equivalent to an Ontario undergraduate degree, length and type of work experience, credit hours or program content

 SAME AS LAST YEAR ***

Information regarding the ways that applicant can meet the registration requirements, including acceptable and required documentation is available on the COTO website and in paper form (if requested). This includes the Fact Sheet, which includes very detailed and specific information regarding how applicants may provide evidence to meet the requirements, and individual web pages for each applicant type. COTO applicants may also speak or e-mail directly to COTO Registration staff regarding any of the registration requirements.

This information is kept current by updating it when the ways in which individuals may meet the requirements changes. This could be due to changes in the registration regulation or policy. An example of this would be the acceptance of a new language fluency test or the change in the score required on such a test.

As indicated above, other organizations that want to provide information regarding COTO's registration practices are encouraged to provide a link to the COTO site rather than trying to reproduce the information on their site, as this way the information linked to will always be consistent and accurate.

The information is user-friendly and is available both on-line and in paper format (if requested). On the COTO website there is also the option to increase the font size of text to make it easier for visually-impaired users to read.

As indicated, the Career Map for the Occupational Therapy profession, available on the Ontario Ministry of Citizenship and Immigration's website, contains the same detailed information and MCI is advised when changes are made that may affect the accuracy of the content of the Career Map.

In addition, when applicants initiate the registration process, they are given access to an online personalized applicant checklist, which list all outstanding documentation required for submission.

d) any education or practical experience required for registration that must be completed in Ontario or practice that must be supervised by a member of the profession who is registered in Ontario

 SAME AS LAST YEAR ***

There are no education or practice experiences that must be completed in Ontario for registration in the General Practising category.

However, if applicants are not current in practice, they may meet the currency requirement by practising under supervision in Ontario. Information regarding how to meet this requirement is provided on the website and in paper format (if requested). Also, once an applicant has applied for registration and found to not be current in practice, he/she is sent a letter of direction specifically outlining what he/she must do to meet the currency requirement. This is because the direction may vary depending on how long the individual has not practised.

If an applicant chooses to apply for a Provisional Practising Certificate of Registration, their practice under this category must be supervised by a College member. Information regarding this category of registration is available generally on the COTO website and in a specific pamphlet entitled "Provisional Practising Certificate of Registration - Responsibilities and Requirements".

This pamphlet and related documents are also available in paper form and they are provided directly in paper or electronic form to individual applicants seeking registration in this category. Information regarding Provisional practice is also included in the Fact Sheet/Career Map.

This information is kept current by updating it when there are any changes to the Currency requirements or to the Provisional Practising Certificate of Registration requirements. As indicated above, other organizations that want to provide information regarding COTO's registration practices are encouraged to provide a link to the COTO site rather than trying to reproduce the information on their site, as this way the information linked to will always be consistent and accurate.

The information is user-friendly and is available both on-line and in paper format (if requested). On the COTO website there is also the option to increase the font size of text to make it easier for visually-impaired users to read.. COTO applicants may also speak or e-mail directly to COTO Registration staff regarding any of the registration requirements.

e) requirements that may be satisfied through acceptable alternatives

 SAME AS LAST YEAR ***

Not strictly applicable, though there are some requirements, such as currency and language fluency that may be met in a number of ways and this is outlined in section 8.

This information is updated to be current and accurate when requirements or policies regarding acceptable evidence to meet the requirements changes.

The information is user-friendly and is available both on-line and in paper format (if requested). On the COTO website there is also the option to increase the font size of text to make it easier for visually-impaired users to read. COTO applicants may also speak or e-mail directly to COTO Registration staff regarding any of the registration requirements or documents required to meet the requirements.

f) the steps in the assessment process

 SAME AS LAST YEAR ***

Information regarding the steps in the assessment of international credentials is available on the COTO website and in paper form (if requested); all of this information is included clearly in the Fact Sheet/Career Map. COTO applicants may also speak or e-mail directly to COTO Registration staff regarding any of the registration requirements.

In addition, when applicants initiate the registration process, they are sent this information directly by paper or electronic mail. The information is user-friendly as it is available both on-line and in paper format (if requested). On the COTO web site there is also the option to increase the font size of text to make it easier for visually-impaired users to read.

This information is kept current by updating it when the ways in which applicant files are assessed changes. This could be due to changes in the registration regulation, policy or third-party service provision. As indicated above, other organizations that want to provide information regarding COTO's assessment processes are encouraged to provide a link to the COTO site rather than trying to reproduce the information on their site, as this way the information linked to will always be consistent and accurate.

h) acceptable alternatives to the documentation if applicants cannot obtain the required documentation for reasons beyond their control

 SAME AS LAST YEAR ***

All of COTO's registration policies are available for public viewing on the COTO web site, including the policy Insufficient and/or Inadequate Documentation (8-110). This policy clearly outlines the process of how applicants unable to provide adequate documentation may provide evidence to the Registration Committee to meet registration requirements and the decision criteria used by the Committee.

The information is user-friendly as applicants unable to provide required documentation are informed of and provided this policy information. It is also available on-line and on the COTO website there is also the option to increase the font size of text to make it easier for visually-impaired users to read. COTO applicants may also speak or e-mail directly to COTO Registration staff regarding any of the registration requirements.

This information is kept current by updating it when there are any changes to the policy (this was done most recently in October 2011).  SAME AS LAST YEAR ***

Applicants may contact the College by telephone during normal business hours, and by fax, e-mail and regular mail.

A Contact Us page on the COTO web site includes address, telephone, fax and e-mail contact information and a Staff Directory listing of contact information so that applicants may contact Registration staff directly. There is also a program contacts page on the registration section of the website. A number of government and other organizations provide a link to the COTO web site so that applicants will know where and how to contact the College.

When individuals apply to COTO they are also provided information regarding the staff person to contact directly regarding their own application.

This information is kept current by updating it when there are any staff or program changes at the College. As indicated above, other organizations that want to provide information regarding COTO's registration practices are encouraged to provide a link to the COTO site rather than trying to reproduce the information on their site, as this way the information linked to will always be consistent and accurate.

The information is user-friendly as it is available on-line and on the COTO website there is also the option to increase the font size of text to make it easier for visually-impaired users to read. COTO applicants may also speak or e-mail directly to COTO Registration staff regarding any questions they may have regarding communicating with the College.

j) how, why and how often your organization initiates communication with applicants about their applications

 SAME AS LAST YEAR ***

Communication is accomplished by telephone, email and/or written letter sent by Canada Post. In addition, when applicants initiate the registration process, they are given access to an online personalized applicant checklist, which list all outstanding documentation required for submission. The checklist is updated in real time, so an applicant always knows when COTO has received their documents and they also see what is still outstanding.

Applicants may be contacted at several points during the registration process, such as letters of acknowledgment, if clarification is required on their application, or if additional documentation is required.

International applicants are sent their letter of eligibility by Canada Post, or it may also be scanned and sent via email.

When a registration number is issued, the registrant is notified by email or phone, which is then followed by a letter.

Once registered, a new member package is sent to the registrant by Purolator courier. The package consists of a College letter, and resource binder. These are usually shipped within 4-6 weeks from the date the registration certificate is issued.

Information regarding specific communications with applications, such as the time frame within which they will receive a response to inquiries, how long assessments can be expected to take (and thereafter communicated to the applicant) are included in the registration information provided to applicants. Information regarding other communications that are part of the on-going processing of applicant files is not included, as these communications happen how and when they are required on an individual basis.

The information is user-friendly as it is also available online and on the COTO website there is also the option to increase the font size of text to make it easier for visually-impaired users to read. COTO applicants may also speak or e-mail directly to COTO Registration staff regarding any of the registration requirements.

This information is kept current by updating it when there are any changes. As indicated above, other organizations that want to provide information regarding COTO's registration practices are encouraged to provide a link to the COTO site rather than trying to reproduce the information on their site, as this way the information linked to will always be consistent and accurate.

k) the process for dealing with documents provided in languages other than English or French

The information is user-friendly as it is available on-line, on the COTO website there is also the option to increase the font size of text to make it easier for visually-impaired users to read. m) any timelines, deadlines or time limits that applicants will be subject to during the registration process

 SAME AS LAST YEAR ***

An application is valid for one year from the date of application; an applicant who has not completed the process within this timeline must re-apply and pay the applicable fee again.

Applicants who are required to meet the currency requirement are provided six months to one year within which to meet the requirement. Once this requirement is met they are considered current for an 18-month period.

This information is conveyed to the applicants in written or e-mail correspondence sent to them during the registration process. COTO applicants may also speak or e-mail directly to COTO Registration staff regarding the progress of their application.

This information is kept current by updating it when there are any changes to this policy. When the College receives a completed application (meaning that all of the registration requirements have been met) the processing time is usually one week. The College commits to processing such an application within 30 calendar days.

The information is available on the COTO website and in information provided to the applicants when they apply. COTO applicants may also speak or e-mail directly to COTO Registration staff regarding any questions they may have regarding communicating with the College.

On the COTO website, there is the option to increase the font size of text to make it easier for visually-impaired users to read.

This information is kept current by updating it when there are any changes to application processing times. As indicated above, other organizations that want to provide information regarding COTO's registration practices are encouraged to provide a link to the COTO site rather than trying to reproduce the information on their site, as this way the information linked to will always be consistent and accurate.

The College has also included a section on the website to give applicants an idea of how long certain processes will take in order to meet the registration requirements (e.g. a third party credential assessment).

o) information about all fees associated with registration, such as fees for initial application, exams and exam rewrites, course enrolment or issuance of licence

 SAME AS LAST YEAR ***

Information regarding the fees is available on the COTO website and in paper form (if requested). This information is also included in the Guide to Online Application. In regards to examination fees, there is a link on the College's fee table that links directly to the fee area of the CAOT website.

The information is user-friendly as it is available both on-line and in paper format (if requested). On the COTO website there is also the option to increase the font size of text to make it easier for visually-impaired users to read. COTO applicants may also speak or e-mail directly to COTO Registration staff regarding any of the registration requirements.

This information is kept current by updating it when there are any changes to application fees. As indicated above, other organizations that want to provide information regarding COTO's registration practices are encouraged to provide a link to the COTO site rather than trying to reproduce the information on their site, as this way the information linked to will always be consistent and accurate.

p) accommodation of applicants with special needs, such as visual impairment

 SAME AS LAST YEAR *****

COTO has developed an Accessible Customer Service Policy (0-38) in compliance with the Accessibility Standard for Customer Service (O. Reg. 429/07), under the Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act (2005). This policy is available on the Registration section of the College website, and in the public reception area of the College.

Service agreements between COTO and CAOT, and WES include the requirement to comply with the Accessibility Standard for Customer Service (O. Reg. 429/07), under the Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act (2005).

The CAOT has policies regarding the provision of specific accommodations for applicants with special needs writing the examination and this information is provided on the CAOT web site or by calling the CAOT.

Please identify and explain the changes in your registration practices relevant to this section that occurred during the reporting year.

Accessibility Customer Service Policy was updated to clearly indicate that applicants may ask any COTO staff member for any type of accommodation as part of the registration process or any dealings with the COTO.

The registration information was updated to reflect that applicants can complete all steps in the registration process while they are outside of Canada, with the exception of writing the National Occupational Therapy Certification Examination and completing a re-entry program, if applicable. This update was made to the website and IEOT Fact Sheet. The IEOT Fact sheet was also produced in French this year.

Are any of the fees different for internationally trained applicants? If yes, please explain.

 SAME AS LAST YEAR ***

Application, registration and examination fees are the same for all applicants.

However, only internationally educated applicants would normally be required to pay for an Academic Equivalency Review, an external credential assessment, or a language fluency test.

The fees associated with these are $150 + tax for the Academic Equivalency Review, approximately $115 + tax for a third-party credential assessment report (the fee may vary depending on the assessment service provider used), and approximately $225 - $285 for a language fluency test.

Please identify and explain the changes in your registration practices relevant to this section that occurred during the reporting year.

Provision of Timely Decisions, Responses and Reasons (3 / 13)

a) What are your timelines for making registration decisions?

 SAME AS LAST YEAR ***

Once an applicant demonstrates that all registration requirements have been met, the application for registration may take up to 30 days to process. If the occupational therapy educational credentials need to be reviewed by the College, the registration process could take a considerably longer amount of time. Applicants, whose applications are referred to the Registration Committee, will receive notice of the referral and be given 30 days to make submissions to the Committee. The Registration Committee generally meets 6 - 8 times per year. Applications referred to the Registration Committee for review will typically take a minimum of 8 weeks to process. The registration process is not complete until an applicant is issued a College registration number.

A credential assessment is a registration requirement for internationally educated applicants. A credential assessment can take as little as 7 business days to complete if the credentialing agency has access to all of the information it requires. The process may take longer if the required information is not readily available.

The Academic Equivalency Review process takes a variable length of time. The minimum length of time is 8 weeks however the process could take up to one year if the required documentation is not readily available and received by the College. The occupational therapy program course descriptions must be sent directly to the College by the academic institution. If the course descriptions are not adequate (contain gaps or missing information), the Registration Committee may provide the applicant with an opportunity to gather more information to ensure their application is as complete as possible. This process may require additional time as well.

Applicants, who do not meet other registration requirements such as legal authorization to work in Canada, or Language Fluency in English or French, shall not be considered eligible for a certificate of registration until all requirements have been met.

Once the Registration Committee renders a decision, the College communicates with applicants verbally as soon as possible (usually within one week of the Registration Committee decision). The decision is formally communicated to the applicant in writing within 30 calendar days.

All of the above information is available on the Registration section of the College's website.

b) What are your timelines for responding to applicants in writing?

 SAME AS LAST YEAR ***

Written responses to applicants are provided within 30 calendar days.

c) What are your timelines for providing written reasons to applicants about all registration decisions, internal reviews and appeal decisions?

 SAME AS LAST YEAR ***

As mandated by the Regulated Health Professions Act, 1991, reasons for registration decisions are provided in writing within 30 calendar days of the date of the decision.

d) Explain how your organization ensures that it adheres to these timelines.

 SAME AS LAST YEAR ***

As the College receives relatively few applications that need to go to Registration Committee, deadline dates for responses are tracked manually and the deadlines are rarely exceeded.

Please identify and explain the changes in your registration practices relevant to this section that occurred during the reporting year.

a) Describe how you give applicants access to their own records related to their applications for registration.

 SAME AS LAST YEAR ***

Applicants may, upon request have access to all documents related to their application for registration. Only information and/or documents that may jeopardize the safety of any person will be withheld. - The College will make every effort to respond to the request within 30 days of the request being received by the College and to assist the individual with understanding the information.

2. If the Registrar is of the opinion that release of any of an applicant's documents may jeopardize the safety of any person the applicant will be provided only those documents that are not considered to jeopardize the safety of any person. In the event that the College refuses to provide access to all of the applicant's documents it holds, the College will provide reasons for denying access.

Resources for Applicants (5 / 13)

a) List and describe any resources that are available to applicants, such as application guides, exam blueprints or programs for orientation to the profession.

 SAME AS LAST YEAR ***

As indicated in a previous section, the College makes available a number of documents, including a Fact Sheet/Career Map for Internationally Educated Applicants as well as an outline of the registration requirements and process on the COTO website. A guide has been developed to assist applicant with completing the online application. The College has posted all of its Registration Policies on the registration section of the College web site.

The Canadian Association of Occupational Therapists (CAOT) has developed and makes available several documents specifically designed to provide information to internationally educated applicants as well as for Canadian graduates preparing to attempt the National Occupational Therapy Certification Examination (NOTCE). This includes "CAOT: Requirements for Occupational Therapy Practice in Canada", the "Certification Examination for Occupational Therapists Resource Manual" and the "Exam Procedures Manual". CAOT has also developed the Trial Occupational Therapy Exam Manual (TOTEM) and the Trial Occupational Therapy Exam (TOTE), this resource is ideal for all exam candidates, International and Canadian graduates.

There are a couple of preparatory/orientation programs for internationally educated OTs. The OT Exam and Practice Preparation (OTEpp) Project is offered at McMaster University.

The pan-Canadian "Orientation to Canadian Health Care Systems, Culture and Context" course for internationally educated health professionals (offered through University of Toronto) is also a course available to IEOTs.

HealthForceOntario (HFO) also provides information and counselling for internationally educated health professionals in a number of disciplines, including occupational therapy. The College presents the College mandate and registration process to internationally educated applicants at HFO twice a year.

The Fact Sheet/Career Map lists contact information for WES, CAOT, the Ontario Society of Occupational Therapists, HealthForceOntario, settlement.org and the Ontario Council of Agencies Serving Immigrants (OCASI) and is available on-line and provided in paper format to IEOT applicants.

On the College web site, a link to the CAOT web site is provided. Also, in all registration materials, it is made clear that CAOT is the exam provider and that all information regarding the exam may be found by contacting the CAOT.

The College website also provides links to: OTEpp, the "Orientation to Canadian Health Care Systems, Culture and Context" course for internationally educated health professionals and HFO. The College provides direct information about OTEpp to every international applicant by email.

COTO continues to, in cooperation with HFO, hold information sessions for IEOTs that provide information about the registration processes in Ontario and also introduce IEOTs to available HFO services.

Please identify and explain the changes in your registration practices relevant to this section that occurred during the reporting year.

Internal Review or Appeal Processes (6 / 13)

In this section, describe your internal review or appeal process. Some regulatory bodies use these two terms (internal review and appeal) for two different processes, some use only one of these terms, and some use them interchangeably. Please use the term that applies to your profession. If you use both terms (for two different processes), please address both.

a) List your timelines for completing internal reviews or appeals of registration decisions.

 SAME AS LAST YEAR ***

The College strives to hold a Registration Committee meeting at least every 8 to 12 weeks. As per Section 15 (3) of the Health Professions Procedural Code, applicants have the right to 30 days from receipt of the notice of referral in which to make any additional submissions to the College. It is their right to additional time to make further submissions to be considered by the panel. Applicants may be asked or may wish to provide further information/documentation to assist the Registration Committee in its decision-making. Applicants providing additional information or documentation in this way may have their file reviewed at the next available Registration Committee meeting.

Upon panel's review the applicant is provided with a verbal summary of the outcome, and then a written decision follows within 30 days of the review. If an applicant wishes a review or hearing of the Registration Committee decision, she/he must write to both the Health Professions Appeal and Review Board and to the College within 30 days of receiving the decision, specifying whether a review or hearing is required.

i. State the number of internal reviews or appeals of registration decisions that exceeded your timelines.

 SAME AS LAST YEAR ***

ii. Among internal reviews or appeals that exceeded your timelines, state the number that were from internationally trained applicants.

b) Specify the opportunities you provide for applicants to make submissions regarding internal reviews or appeals.

 SAME AS LAST YEAR ***

Applicants who do not meet the registration requirements as specified may request a review by the Registration Committee of the College.

As per Section 15(3) of the Health Professions Procedural Code, applicants have the right to 30 days from receipt of the notice of referral letter in which to make any additional submissions to the College. This does not mean that her/his application is incomplete but it is her/his right to additional time to make further submissions to be considered by the panel. Applicants may be asked or may wish to provide further information/documentation to assist the Registration Committee in its decision-making. Applicants providing additional information or documentation in this way may have their file reviewed at the next available Registration Committee meeting.

A copy of the panel's decision and reasons letter is sent to the applicant within 30 days of the Registration Committee review. The letter states that if the applicant has any concerns with the decision, under section 21 of the Health Professions Procedural Code, she/he has the right to require the Health Professions Appeal and Review Board to hold a review or hearing of her/his application. If she/he wishes a review or hearing, she/he must write to both the Health Professions Appeal and Review Board and to the Registration Committee within 30 days of receiving the letter, specifying whether a review or hearing is required.

This appeal process is outlined on the Registration > Registration Committee Appeals section of the College website.

c) Explain how you inform applicants about the form in which they must make their submissions (i.e., orally, in writing or by electronic means) for internal reviews or appeals.

 SAME AS LAST YEAR ***

Applicants are notified in writing that their application is being formally referred by the Registrar to the Registration Committee for review. Applicants are advised to provide any information to be considered by the Committee in written form; they may submit documents electronically or by Canada Post. Some documents, such as course descriptions etc. must be submitted directly from the issuing institution to the College. The Assessment of Qualifications Policy (8-180) specifies the appropriate form and manner in which requisite supporting documentation must be submitted to the College in order for qualifications to be accurately assessed.

Applicants who do not meet the registration requirements as specified may request a review by the Registration Committee of the College.

d) State how you ensure that no one who acted as a decision-maker in a registration decision acts as a decision-maker in an internal review or appeal of the same registration decision.

 SAME AS LAST YEAR ***

The Registrar's formal referral to the Registration Committee process is prescribed in the Regulated Health Professions Act, RHPA 1991.

e) Describe your internal review or appeal process.

 SAME AS LAST YEAR ***

As per Schedule 2 of the Health Professions Procedural Code, Section 15 (2), the Registrar shall refer an application for registration to a panel of the Registration Committee for a review if the Registrar, (a) has doubts, on reasonable grounds, about whether the applicant fulfills the registration requirements. Applicants who do not meet the registration requirements as specified may request a review by the Registration Committee of the College.

Applicants are notified in writing that their application is being formally referred by the Registrar to the Registration Committee for review. Applicants are advised to provide any information to be considered by the Committee in written form; they may submit documents electronically or by Canada Post. Some documents, such as course descriptions etc. must be submitted directly from the issuing institution to the College. A copy of the panel's decision and reasons letter is sent to the applicant within 30 days of the Registration Committee review. The letter states that if the applicant has any concerns with the decision, under section 21 of the Health Professions Procedural Code, she/he has the right to require the Health Professions Appeal and Review Board to hold a review or hearing of her/his application. If she/he wishes a review or hearing, she/he must write to both the Health Professions Appeal and Review Board and to the Registration Committee within 30 days of receiving the letter, specifying whether a review or hearing is required.

This appeal process is outlined on the Registration > Registration Committee Appeals section of the College website.

f) State the composition of the committee that makes decisions about registration, which may be called a Registration Committee or Appeals Committee: how many members does the committee have; how many committee members are members of the profession in Ontario; and how many committee members are internationally trained members of the profession in Ontario.

The COTO Registration Committee is a statutory committee created under the Regulated Health Professions Act.

The Registration Committee consists of:

- a) two members of the Council who are members of the College;
- b) two members of the Council appointed to the Council by the Lieutenant Governor in Council; and
- c) one College registrant who is not a member of Council.

There are no set-aside Committee positions for internationally educated members. Such members are eligible to become Council members in the same way as any other member, and may in that way become Registration Committee members.

With respect to new non-Council professional members for the Committee, the Committee agreed they will select the best overall candidate, but it would be preferable for the member to have international academic occupational therapy experience. The College notes this preference in the advertisement for the position. Currently, there is an internationally-educated non-Council professional member appointed to the Committee.

A Registration Panel must be composed of at least three persons from the Registration Committee, one of whom is a member of Council appointed by the Lieutenant Governor in Council. On each panel, the number of Council members who are members of the College must equal or exceed the number of Council members appointed by the Lieutenant Governor in Council.

The Chair of the Committee is elected annually by the Council.

The Registration Committee meets at 6-8 times per year.

The Chair of the Committee reports regularly to the Council and prepares an annual written report for Council and registrants.

This section refers to reviews or appeals that are available after an internal review or appeal. Describe how you inform applicants of any rights they have to request a further review of or appeal from a decision.

All applicants who receive a registration decision are informed, in their decision letter, of their right to appeal to the Health Professions Appeal and Review Board (HPARB). In this letter they are advised that if they wish a review or hearing, they must write to both the HPARB and to the COTO Registration Committee within 30 days of receiving the decision letter, specifying whether a review or hearing is required.

Information on appeal rights is available under the Registration > Registration Committee Appeals subsection of the College website.

The appeal process is also outlined in the Fact Sheet / Career Map available on our website.

Assessment of Qualifications (8 / 13)

This category covers your processes for assessing all qualifications, such as academic credentials, competencies, language ability or practical experience.

a) List the criteria that must be met in order for an applicant's qualifications to satisfy the entry-to-practice requirements for your profession.

 SAME AS LAST YEAR ***

The General Practising Certificate requirements are:

1. A Bachelor of Science degree or Master of Science degree in Occupational Therapy obtained in Ontario or an academic qualification considered equivalent by the Registration Committee.
2. Successful completion of 1000 hours of fieldwork or clinical practicum as part of the education program.
3. Currency/recent practice hours (600 hours within the last 3 years) or have successfully completed a supervised Refresher Program within the last 18 months. Recent graduates (18 months or less) are automatically granted currency. Practice hours include direct service hours, planning and development hours, and administrative hours usually recognized in standard workload measurement systems. Applicants who do not meet currency must provide other evidence, satisfactory to the Registrar, of possessing the current knowledge, skill, judgment and ability.
4. Successful completion of the certification examination (currently the Canadian Association of Occupational Therapists' National Certification Exam is the approved exam).
5. Professional Liability insurance that includes a sexual abuse therapy and counseling fund endorsement.
6. Legal entitlement to work in Canada
7. Fluency in French or English
8. Good Conduct

b) Describe the methodology used to determine whether a program completed outside of Canada satisfies the requirements for registration.

 SAME AS LAST YEAR ***

Applicants who completed their OT program outside of Canada are required to provide an academic assessment report from WES.

The College maintains a database of OT programs outside of Canada that have previously been assessed and been approved by the College. If the credential assessment report verifies the documented completion of an OT program and this program is one that has been previously approved by the College, and the applicant graduated the year of the approved course syllabus (or in a subsequent year), the applicant will be deemed to have completed an approved program.

If the program completed is verified to be a legitimate OT program, but it has not yet been approved by the College, the next step is for the applicant to ask for an Academic Equivalency Review (AER) of their program by the College's Registration Committee.

The applicant is required to arrange for the transcript along with valid course descriptions including the names, content, hour breakdown of the courses in the program, and details of the clinical fieldwork placements, to be sent directly from the educational institution to the College.

An AER must be completed for applicants that have graduated from an OT program that has not been approved by the College. An OT program will be approved by the College when the program is found to be substantially equivalent to Ontario-approved OT programs at a bachelors level or higher.

PROCEDURE

An AER is completed by a panel of the Registration Committee. The Registration Committee uses a standardized review tool, the Academic Review Tool (ART), based on the Essential Competencies of Practice for Occupational Therapists in Canada, to determine substantial equivalence of an educational program completed outside of Canada based on the evidence provided in course curriculum.

For the AER to be completed, the following process is followed:

1. Applicant is provided with the paper ART document (an electronic copy is provided on request);
2. Applicant must arrange for their academic institution to issue the complete course description and/or syllabus (representative of the years they studied) to the College and to themselves;
3. All academic documents must be provided in English or French. Documents in any other language will require translation into English at the expense of the applicant. Only notarized translated documents will be accepted;
4. The applicant must complete the ART based on their review of the curriculum and submit this to the College for review by the Registration Committee;
5. The Registration Committee will review the applicant's submission at its first available meeting, and corroborate the findings based on the applicant's transcript and course description;
6. Upon completing the review, the Registration Committee will make a decision as to the substantial equivalency of the OT program.

c) Explain how work experience in the profession is assessed.

 SAME AS LAST YEAR ***

One of the requirements of registration is that the applicant be current in practice. Applicants may meet this requirement by providing evidence that they have recent practice experience in the profession (600 hours within the last 3 years) or have successfully completed a supervised Refresher Program within the last 18 months. Recent graduates (18 months or less) are automatically granted currency. Practice hours include direct service hours, planning and development hours, and administrative hours usually recognized in standard workload measurement systems.

Applicants self-declare their practice hours and give signed permission for the College to verify this information. They may also provide signed documentation from employers as evidence of recent practice hours. This practice may have been completed in any country.

Applicants who do not meet currency must provide other evidence, satisfactory to the Registrar, of possessing the current knowledge, skill, judgment and ability. This could include evidence that they have been engaged in continuing education or professional development or that they have completed a refresher program approved by the College.

d) Describe how your organization ensures that information used in the assessment about educational systems and credentials of applicants from outside Canada is current and accurate.

 SAME AS LAST YEAR ***

The College requirement of a third party credential assessment is to ensure the authenticity and validity of academic documents and credentials.

World Education Services (WES), as a member of the Alliance of Credential Evaluation Services of Canada and a service endorsed by the Ontario government, has undergone a rigorous self-evaluation process including a review of assessment procedures, experience, file management, personnel qualifications, documentation methods and reference material base. To qualify for Alliance membership, WES has demonstrated that it complies with established quality standards and has agreed to maintain those standards.

WES uses a sophisticated database to store all information about educational institutions, and previous assessment decisions. WES staff, including dedicated researchers, is continuously updating information on changes to education systems around the world. Evaluation team members meet weekly to discuss new information and the policy group meets weekly to ensure new information informs decisions regarding evaluations.

COTO's Academic Review Tool, used to determine substantial equivalency of OT programs, is based on the national document "Essential Competencies of Practice for Occupational Therapists in Canada". The essential competencies document is kept current by the Association of Canadian Occupational Therapy Regulatory Organizations (ACOTRO), the ART is updated by COTO as necessary.

e) Describe how previous assessment decisions are used to assist in maintaining consistency when assessing credentials of applicants from the same jurisdictions or institutions.

 SAME AS LAST YEAR ***

WES: WES stores all previous decisions, and updates to policy, in a database which is used by evaluators to prepare evaluation reports.

COTO: The College maintains a database of previous assessments of OT programs completed outside of Canada and uses this as reference when determining whether an OT program is approved by the College or requires an Academic Equivalency Review (AER). Once an AER is done a program may be added to the list of approved programs. Subsequent applicants who completed the same program will not be required to complete the AER as long as the program has not changed since it was approved by the College.

f) Explain how the status of an institution in its home country affects recognition of the credentials of applicants by your organization.

 SAME AS LAST YEAR ***

WES takes this in consideration as one factor in credential assessment. Some institutions which are not accredited in their home country are bona fide. There are also instances (rare) where a country may accredit institutions inappropriately.

The College relies on the WES assessment to determine whether a program should be recognized or not.

g) Describe how your organization accommodates applicants with special needs, such as visual impairment.

 SAME AS LAST YEAR ***

COTO has an "Accessible Customer Service Policy" that is available on the Registration > Registration Policies section of the website at www.coto.org. The policy is in compliance with the Accessible Standard for Customer Service (O. Reg. 429/07), under the Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act (AODA), 2005.

The service agreements between COTO and CAOT and WES include the requirement to comply with the Accessible Standard for Customer Service (O. Reg. 429/07), under the Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act (AODA), 2005.

h) State the average length of time required to complete the entire registration process, from when the process is initiated to when a registration decision is issued.

 SAME AS LAST YEAR ***

The answer to this question depends on whether or not an applicant meets all of the registration requirements in order to be issued a certificate of registration.

A complete application takes 5 days to process. An incomplete application can take up to several months to process depending on when the applicant fulfills all requirements and sends the documentation to the College to support their application.

An incomplete application can be a result of:

- the applicant not having submitted all required supporting documentation;
- the applicant submitting the registration application prior to having met all of the registration requirements (e.g. fluency requirement, legal authorization to work in Canada);
- the applicant having submitted documentation that may be insufficient or unclear and must be referred to the Registration Committee for review.

Also, if the education program has not yet been approved by the College, the application will be referred for an Academic Equivalency Review. This review can add 3 months or more to the processing time. It can take some time for the applicant to complete the Academic Review Tool and for supporting documents to be sent from international institutions to the College.

If the applicant does not meet the currency requirement, he or she may be required to complete an approved re-entry program which is usually a period of supervised practice. The applicant is provided 6 to 12 months to meet this requirement.

i. State whether the average time differs for internationally trained individuals.

 SAME AS LAST YEAR ***

Yes, the average time for internationally trained individuals can take longer.

ii. If the average time differs for internationally trained individuals, state whether it is greater or less than the average for all applicants, and the reasons for the difference.

 SAME AS LAST YEAR ***

Internationally educated applicants have at least one extra step in the registration process – they are required to obtain a third party credential assessment. The College has approved all Canadian Occupational Therapy programs, therefore Canadian educational programs do not require a third party credential assessment. Also many applicants must provide evidence of language fluency through completion of a standardized test, and some require additional language training to be able to meet this requirement. Therefore, the time required to fulfill these requirements may result in the process taking longer.

Other factors that may slow down the process include: the time required for third parties (schools, former employers, regulatory bodies in other countries) to provide official documentation such as original transcripts and curricula, official confirmation or documentation of OT licensure/registration in other jurisdictions, the time it takes to obtain a work permit or permanent resident status from Citizenship and Immigration Canada, and the time it takes to meet the language fluency requirement.

i) If your organization conducts credential assessments:

i. Explain how you determine the level (e.g., baccalaureate, master's, Ph.D.) of the credential presented for assessment.

ii. Describe the criteria that are applied to determine equivalency.

Third-Party Organizations (9 / 13)

a) List any third-party organizations (such as language testers, credential assessors or examiners) relied upon by your organization to make assessment decisions.

 SAME AS LAST YEAR ***

The Canadian Association of Occupational Therapists (CAOT) sets and administers the National Occupational Therapy Certification Examination (NOTCE), which is currently the only examination accepted to meet the examination requirement.

World Education Services (WES) Canada provides credential assessment services for the College.

The College accepts language fluency assessments from a number of accredited language fluency testing agencies; Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL), International English Language Testing System Academic (IELTS AC), TESTCan, and CanTEST. The College does not have formal service provision agreements with these organizations.

b) Explain what measures your organization takes to ensure that any third-party organization that it relies upon to make an assessment:

i. provides information about assessment practices to applicants

 SAME AS LAST YEAR ***

COTO has service provider Memoranda of Understanding with both CAOT and WES that outline the fairness and transparency obligations of these parties as they provide services to COTO applicants.

The College directs applicants to the CAOT for all information regarding the National Occupational Therapy Certification Examination (NOTCE).

The CAOT website provides extensive information specifically for internationally educated occupational therapists (IETs). This includes information regarding the role of provincial regulatory bodies in the credential assessment and registration process.

The CAOT, as a national organization, does perform credential assessments on behalf of some OT regulatory bodies in other Canadian provinces, in order to determine examination eligibility. The CAOT does not perform credential assessment for COTO and directs applicants hoping to work in Ontario to COTO to begin their credential assessment process.

Applicants applying to be registered in Ontario must go through the COTO credential assessment process in order to determine whether they have met the education requirement of registration.

CAOT provides information outlining the complete examination process on their website and in the cover letter and application form provided to the applicant (all material is available in English and French).

WES: The College directs applicants to WES for credential assessment services. There is information on the WES website regarding how to apply for a credential assessment, the documentation required etc. In addition WES participates in community information sessions, walk-in support, e-mail response to individual queries, telephone response to individual queries etc.

ii. utilizes current and accurate information about qualifications from outside Canada

 SAME AS LAST YEAR ***

CAOT is not used by COTO to assess qualifications and the exam process is unrelated to this issue.

WES is a recognized and accredited credential assessment service and has a signed Memorandum of Understanding with the College that stipulates that WES adheres to the transparency, good practices and quality assurance guidelines of the Alliance of Credential Evaluation Services of Canada (ACESC). ACESC quality assurance guidelines includes the use of current and accurate information about qualifications completed outside of Canada.

iii. provides timely decisions, responses and reasons to applicants

 SAME AS LAST YEAR ***

CAOT: Not applicable - COTO does not use CAOT services to assess international programs (see i. above).

WES: All required documents, and payment in full must be received before the assessment of the credentials can begin. At this point, the process takes seven working days, after which a report is sent to the applicant, and to an institution or employer of the applicant's choice.

Late is defined as taking 8 or more business days, excluding the time waiting.

Based on when the file is first opened, the average length of time is 5 to 7 days; based on when WES receives all required documents. The average length of time is 5 days. This is consistent with WES' 7 business day standard, because 2-3 business days would be taken in processing the file up to the time that a request for appropriate documents was sent out. At this point, the number of working days on the file is frozen until the required documents are received.

Appeals are responded to within 20 working days. The individual is informed of the timeframe when they make an appeal.

iv. provides training to individuals assessing qualifications

 SAME AS LAST YEAR ***

CAOT: Not applicable - COTO does not use CAOT services to assess international programs (see i. above).

WES: All new evaluation staff receive formal in-house training under the leadership of the Assistant Director, Training. Typically an individual works under the direct supervision of a senior staff for two months prior to working on their own. All evaluation staff participate in weekly meeting to ensure they are up to date on emerging trends and information.

v. provides access to records related to the assessment to applicants

 SAME AS LAST YEAR ***

CAOT: Not applicable - COTO does not use CAOT services to assess international programs (see i. above).

WES: WES's privacy policy contains details about access to information in an applicant's file. This policy is available on the WES website.

Here is the WES Privacy Policy:

CAOT: Not applicable - COTO does not use CAOT services to assess international programs (see i. above).

WES: The main elements that are considered are the level, scope and intent of the degree in the home country. For example, what is the status of the institution, what are the admission requirements of the program, what is length and depth of the program, what does the degree lead to (e.g. further study, licensing, etc).

For BAs, there is a definition of institution type (academic versus technical, university versus community college type of institution), program type and program length that is factored into the decision as to whether the credential is a university bachelors degree, or a community college diploma. Furthermore, if the degree is comparable to a three- or four-year bachelors depends on the relative standing of the academic institution in the home country.

i. Describe the exam format, scoring method and number of rewrites permitted.

National Occupational Therapy Certification Examination (NOTCE):

Regarding the National Occupational Therapy Certification Examination (NOTCE), candidates may speak with the CAOT Exam Services Coordinator during CAOT business hours to receive a verbal explanation of the process or to clarify questions the candidate may have.

In terms of writing the NOTCE, at no cost to the candidate, and at the candidate's request based on supporting documentation from a professional or the candidate's university student services office, CAOT provides a variety of special accommodations that are required by the candidate such as additional time, private space, reader/scribe, Braille or large print exam, physical accommodation (chair with additional back support, special desk, etc.) or non-Saturday sitting based on religious restriction.

The NOTCE is offered twice a year: in July and November.

The exam consists of two 2-hour sessions with a one hour break between. Each session covers 100 multiple-choice questions based on case studies provided in point form, in Plain English or French.

The passing score is 290. Candidates who correctly answer more items than are required to pass the examination will obtain scaled scores that are between 290 and 450. Candidates that do not correctly answer enough questions will obtain a scaled score of 100 and 289.

Failed candidates are provided with Fail Score sheets indicating the distribution of items, the performance of the reference (first-time Canadian trained) group and the performance of the individual, all expressed in percentages.

The passing score for the examination is 290. The passing score for the exam was determined by subject matter experts who reviewed the content of an examination and rendered judgments on expected candidate performance item by item. This reflects the purposes of the exam, which is to ensure that all individuals who enter occupational therapy practice in Canada meet a minimum standard of theoretical and applied knowledge and professional behaviour.

The passing score, which is a standardized score of 290, has been maintained from one exam administration to the next through a statistical procedure known as equating which ensures that the level of performance necessary to pass one exam is equivalent to the level of performance required to pass another exam, despite differences in length or difficulty.

An individual who holds COTO Provisional registration is afforded a maximum of two opportunities to write the NOTCE while holding a Provisional Certificate and practising under supervision. If the Provisional member is unsuccessful after two attempts, his/her Provisional registration will expire. At that point, the individual will no longer be allowed to practice as an occupational therapist.

All those who write the exam are notified of their status (pass/fail) within approximately 6 to 8 weeks of the exam sitting. Those who do not pass the NOTCE are given a detailed description of their examination results. Applicants are given to opportunity to challenge the NOTCE a maximum of the times.

ii. Describe how the exam is tested for validity and reliability. If results are below desired levels, describe how you correct the deficiencies.

 SAME AS LAST YEAR ***

In terms of the administration of the NOTCE, CAOT currently uses the services of the Division of Studies of Medical Education, University of Alberta, as an external examination services provider. Both validity and reliability scores are provided by DSME for each examination administration.

Validity and Test Blueprint: The NOTCE has an exam Blueprint that is used to ascertain content validity for each examination. After each examination sitting there is a report that outlines the different components of the Blueprint elements, the recommended emphasis (expressed as percent range, e.g., 20-30% for Professional Knowledge), the marginal totals and accompanying percentages showing the emphasis given to the areas on the exam.

The actual distribution of scored items by subject areas are reviewed after each sitting to ensure that the exam is representative of the content of Occupational Therapy, within the constraints of the description of the domain, the test format, and the test blueprint.

Test Reliability: CAOT uses an accepted measure of reliability which represents a measure of the internal consistency of the examination. CAOT examination reliability values are in keeping with the reliability generally expected for licensing examinations. Each item of each examination sitting is examined for its reliability. According to reliability measures items may be removed before scoring and then be reviewed, revised, or discarded by the Certification Examination Committee.

iii. State how often exam questions are updated and the process for doing so.

 SAME AS LAST YEAR ***

The NOTCE is continuously under review and revision to reflect current practice and relevant professional documents. The Registrar of COTO is the Association of Canadian Occupational Therapy Regulatory Organizations (ACOTRO) representative on the Exam Review Committee. Exam items are developed according to Item Generation Policy. In 2009 a full review of the NOTCE was undertaken and completed.

All Item Generators receive training. Items are reviewed and revised by the Item Generation Coordinator, and then brought to the Certification Exam Committee after translation into plain language in each official language. Each exam item is reviewed again and revised as needed before being accepted into the bank.

Once material is accepted into the exam bank, it is reviewed for currency each time it is used on an exam, or as per policy. All case studies and items are coded according to the blueprint and referenced.

Please identify and explain the changes in your registration practices relevant to this section that occurred during the reporting year.

Effective October 2014, CAOT implemented a policy which limits the number of times a candidate can challenge the NOTCE to a maximum of three. All applicants who have previously attempted the NOTCE and were unsuccessful will be given the opportunity to attempt the NOTCE an additional three times. This was communicated to all IEOTs by CAOT.

Training (10 / 13)

a) Describe the training that your organization provides to:

i. individuals who assess qualifications

 SAME AS LAST YEAR ***

COTO's qualifications assessments are completed through third-party organizations. At WES, evaluation staff receives formal in-house training under the leadership of the Assistant Director, Training. All evaluation staff participate in weekly meetings to ensure they are up to date on emerging trends and information.

All members of the COTO Registration Committee (including new and experienced members) are provided with an annual orientation session to the work of the Committee. The main resource for this orientation is the Registration Committee Policy Manual. During the term of the Committee, their knowledge and familiarity with assessment processes is strengthened through the review and use of established Committee policies, guidelines and precedence as they perform application reviews.

ii. individuals who make registration decisions

Training is provided to ensure that COTO staff knowledge and familiarity with the assessment processes is strengthened through the review and use of established RC policies, guidelines and precedence as they perform application reviews.

All members of the COTO Registration Committee (including new and experienced members) are provided annual orientation that outlines the legislation and regulations guiding registration in the profession and provides policy guidelines outlined in a Policy Manual. The main resource for this orientation is the Registration Committee Policy Manual. The Policy Manual is regularly used by the Committee to guide their practices, and is updated on a regular basis. College legal counsel also provides a half-day in-house training session on how to complete application reviews and make decisions. Agreements on the Recognition of Qualifications (11 / 13)

Examples of agreements on the recognition of professional qualifications include mutual recognition, reciprocity and labour mobility agreements. Such agreements may be national or international, between regulatory bodies, associations or jurisdictions.

a) List any agreements on the recognition of qualifications that were in place during the reporting period.

 SAME AS LAST YEAR ***

COTO was a signatory to the Association of Canadian Occupational Therapy Regulatory Organizations (ACOTRO) Mutual Recognition Agreement (MRA) when it was negotiated and came into effect in July 2001. In 2009 this was revised to become the ACOTRO Labour Mobility Support Agreement (LMSA), and COTO became a signatory to this new agreement in early 2010.

b) Explain the impact of these agreements on the registration process or on applicants for registration.

 SAME AS LAST YEAR ***

In 2009 the Federal/Provincial/Territorial Agreement on Internal Trade (AIT) was amended, and important changes were made to the Labour Mobility Chapter (Chapter 7) that affected all regulated professions.

The new requirements include a simplified "permit on permit" registration process and also allows members registered in one jurisdiction with Terms, Conditions, and Limitations (TCLs) or practising with a restricted practice certificate of registration to be registered in another Canadian jurisdiction, as long as the receiving jurisdiction can, within provincial legislation and regulation, provide for similar TCLs or restrictions.

One of the most significant changes for the Occupational Therapy profession is that members are no longer required to have worked in another Canadian jurisdiction in order to be eligible to benefit from the labour mobility provisions. Previously, OTs were required to be registered and have practised in another province for 3 years in order to be eligible to use the MRA provisions; under the LMSA an individual simply needs to be registered in good standing in another jurisdiction.

The LMSA allows the regulator in the original jurisdiction to forward the required registration documentation regarding its member directly to COTO, which facilitates and shortens the registration process for eligible applicants.
